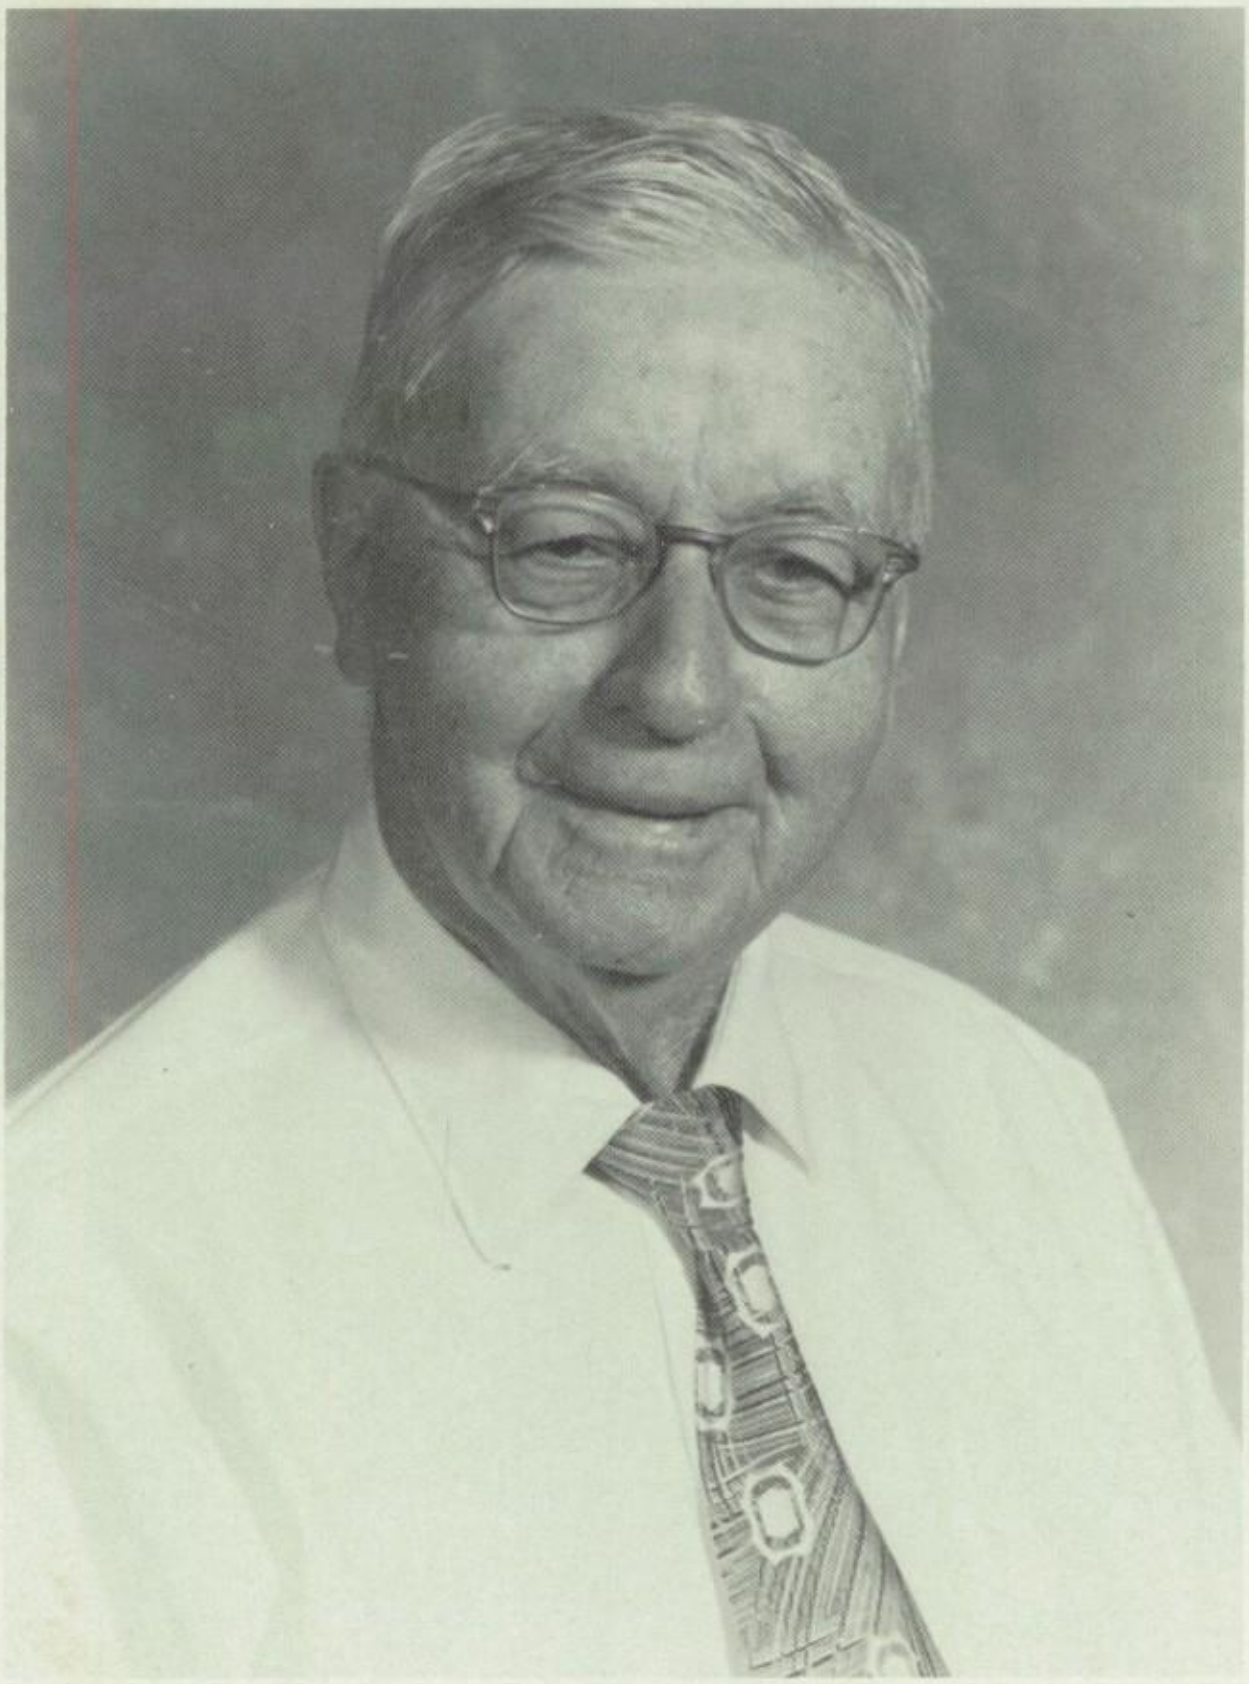
1975 Conifer

It is with a delightful feeling of joy and gratitude that the 1975 Conifer Staff dedicates this yearbook to the congenial Brother Arthur Chiasson. All who know Brother 'Art', as he is affectionately called, experience a certain indescribable enjoyment while in his presence. Conversation with him may start on a serious note, but eventually it will end in an outburst of laughter. This is Brother Art's way of saying that he is happy as a man and as a Christian Brother.

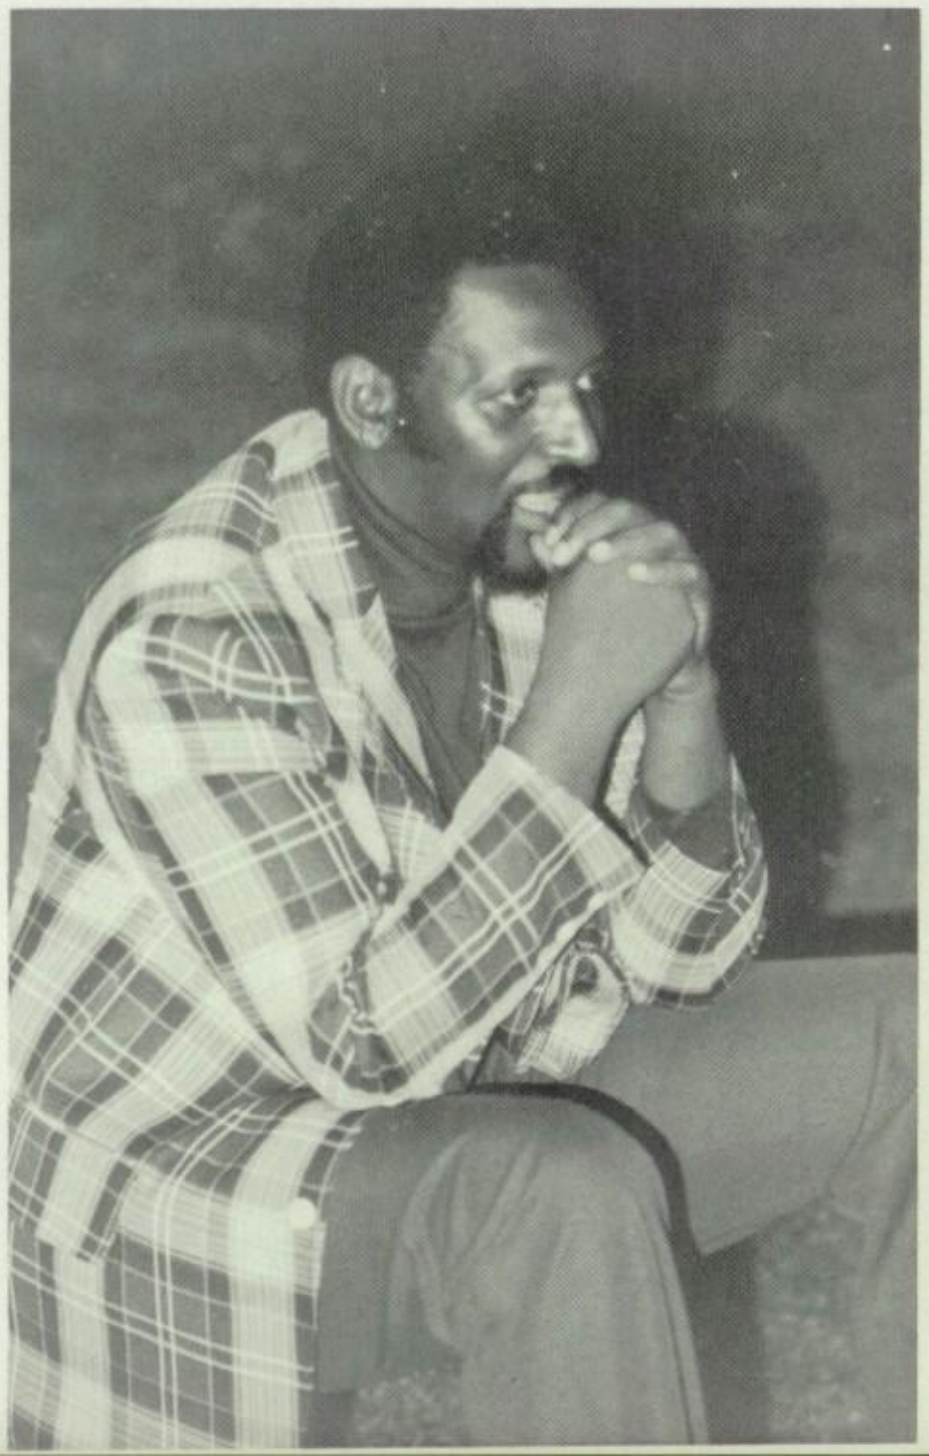
Varied has been Brother Arthur Chiasson's experiences as a Brother. Following his novitiate in Pocantico Hills, N.Y., he has devoted his time and talents in Massachusetts, New York, New Mexico and Louisiana. In the Brothers' establishments in these four States, Brother Arthur taught class, performed duties as a prefect and when his health began to fail he was assigned such tasks as assistant infirmarian, supervisor of cafeteria, book store manager and mail distributor.

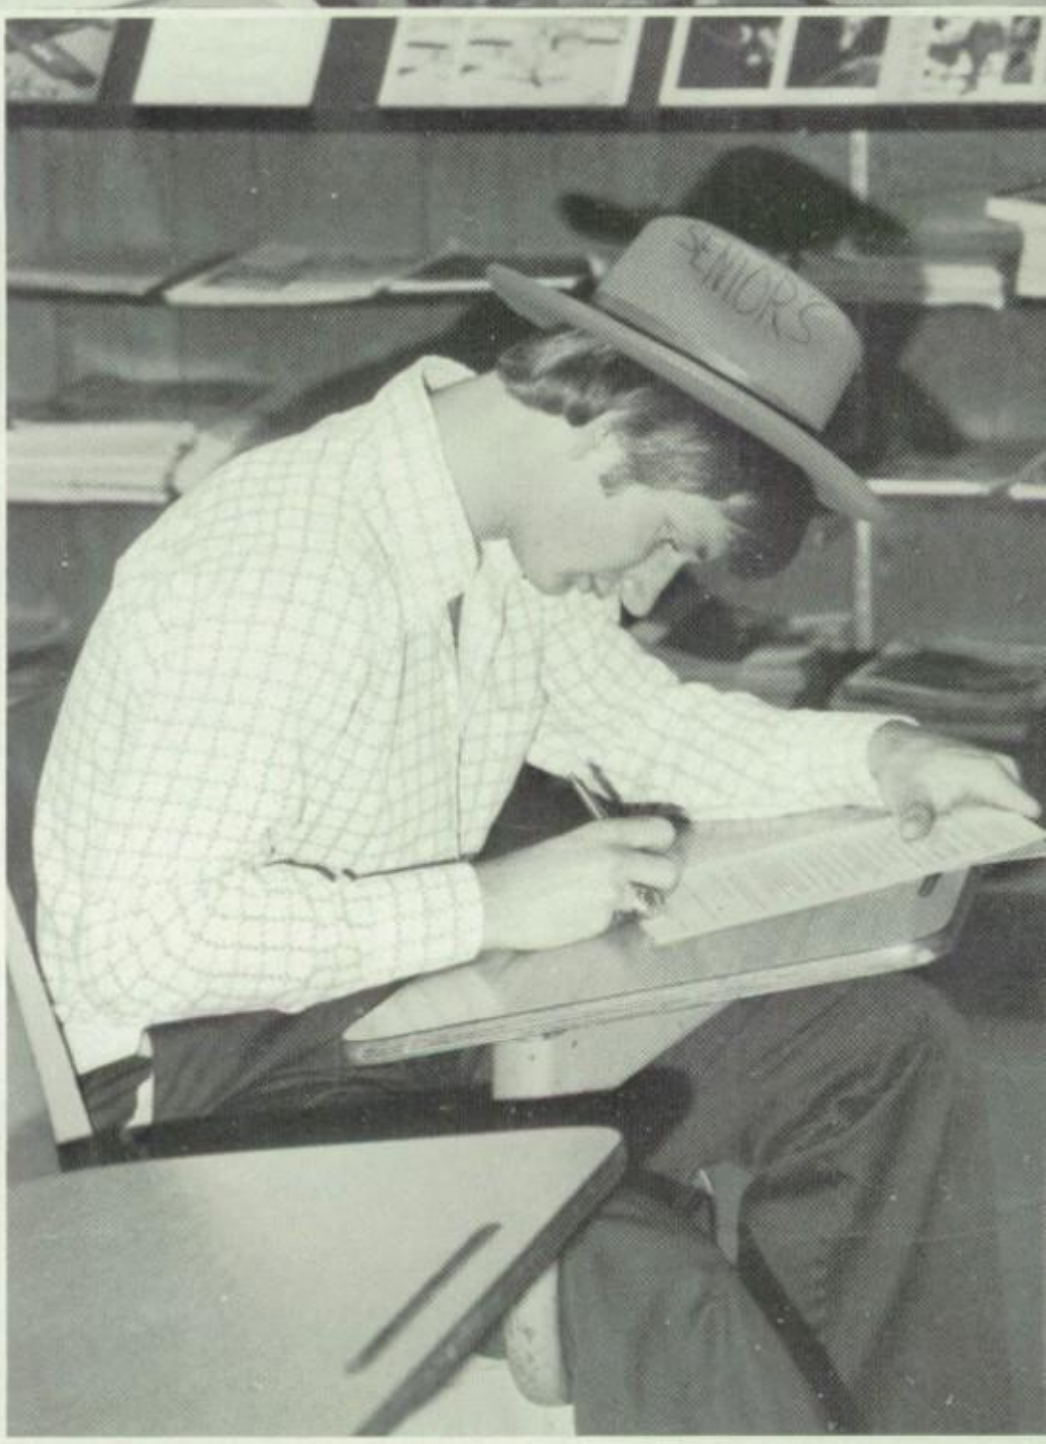
Since 1959 (Brother) Art has been here as a member of the St. Paul's Community. This year marks the completion of 15 years of dedicated service,the longest period he has remained in any assignment of his 64 years as a Christian Brother. Before this year ends, the St. Paul's Community promises to ring the bell 80 times to remind our Dear Brother Art that he is only 80 years young.

Dedication



Brother Arthur





The people of the community constitute more than simply its population; they are more than a faceless mass. They are individuals who have merged their separate identities to form a collective force.

Obviously, each person should, first of all, have his own distinct individuality. It is this individuality which makes him distinguishable and complete, for this oneness stems from a uniqueness of character.

However, at the same time he develops and maintains his uniqueness, each individual belongs to a specific community. The members of this community become supportive of one another in working toward individual success, as well as in working toward a common goal. Thus, the individual and the community co-exist in a mutually sustaining relationship.

Ultimately, the success of any community lies in the effort of the individual; the success of the individual lies in the strength of the community.

As we look back in an attempt to review the '74 season, the one thing that everyone first sees is the overall 1-9 record. I, personally, feel responsible for that poor record, and I think it would be particularly unfair to judge this team's contribution to St. Paul's history by the won-lost record alone.

In spite of our record, there were some extremely gratifying moments during this season, and if we judge a team by the qualities that were initially intended for the game of football, we definitely must call the '74 wolves winners.

It has been a long-standing tradition at St. Paul's that the seniors, in any sport, set the pace, and, through determination and pride, lead our squads to become ones that are respected. This year's football team was no exception.

A real winner, as far as I am concerned, is a man who, in spite of great adversity, can keep striving and not become a quitter. This, to me, is the reason athletics should be a part of everyone's life and is the reason why, with a bright look to '75, we all must congratulate the '74 Wolves.

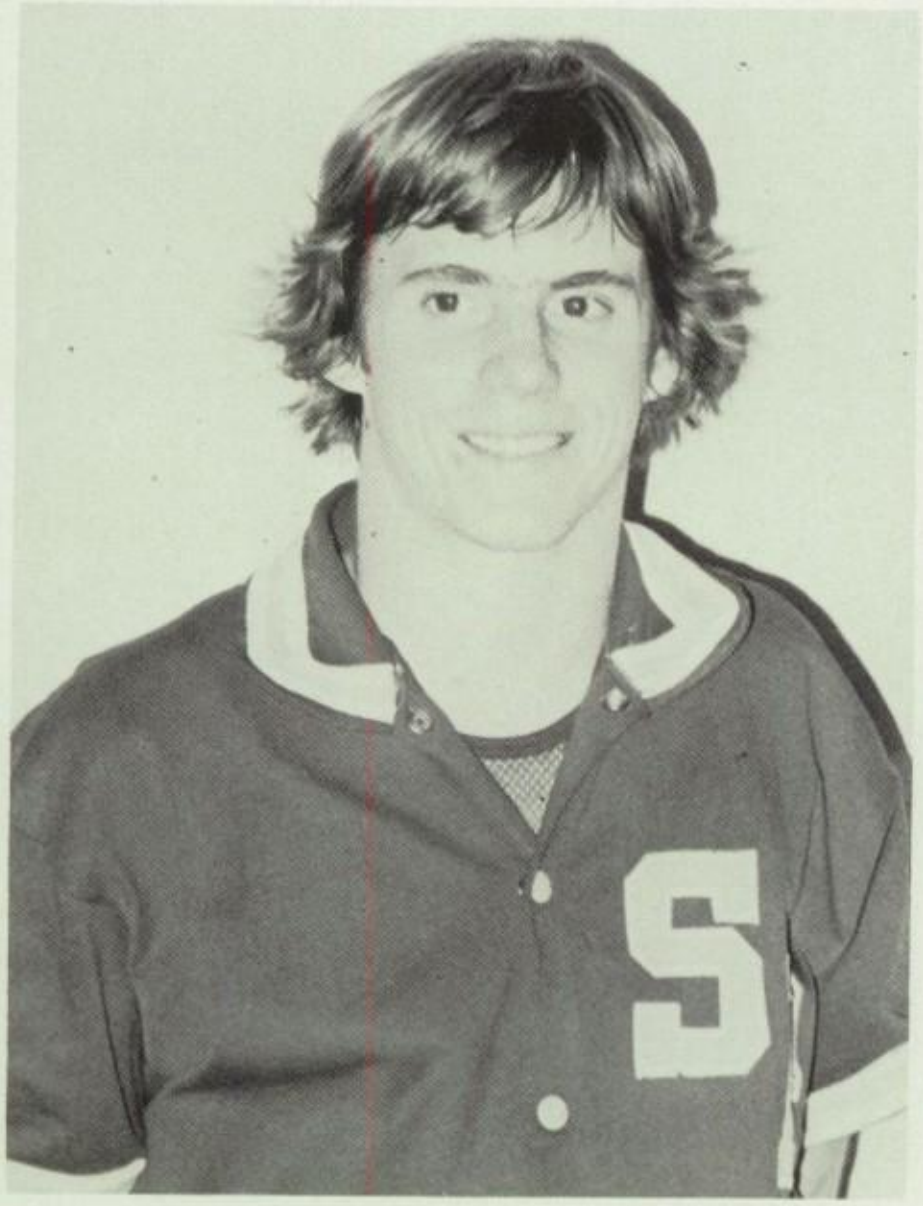
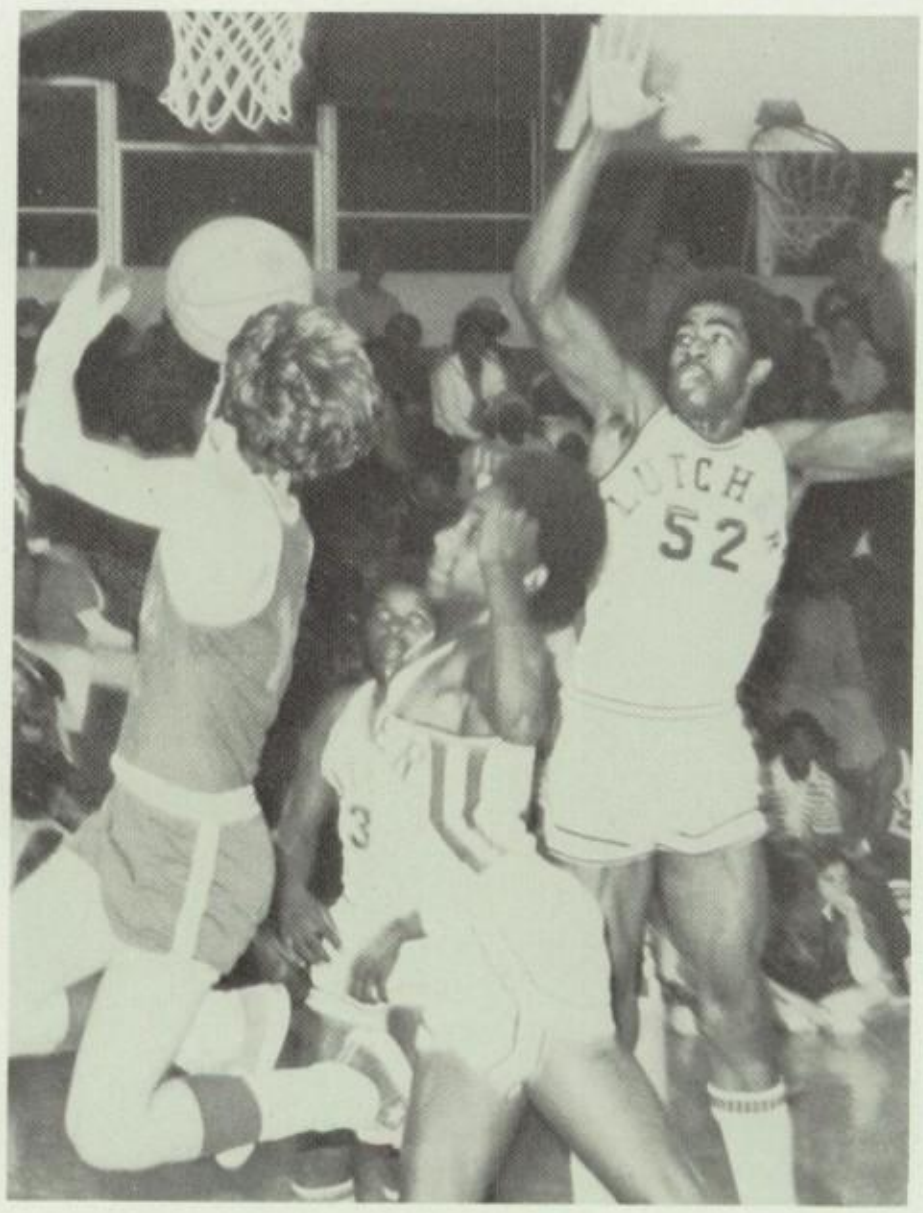
The five Seniors on the Varsity team.

Mike Nicaud - One of the finest players in recent St. Paul's Basketball history. Great combination of scoring (21 pts./game), rebounding (13 reb./game), and defense.

Steve Vallette - Developed into a fine perimeter shooter and an excellent rebounder due to his ability to block his bigger opponents off the goal.



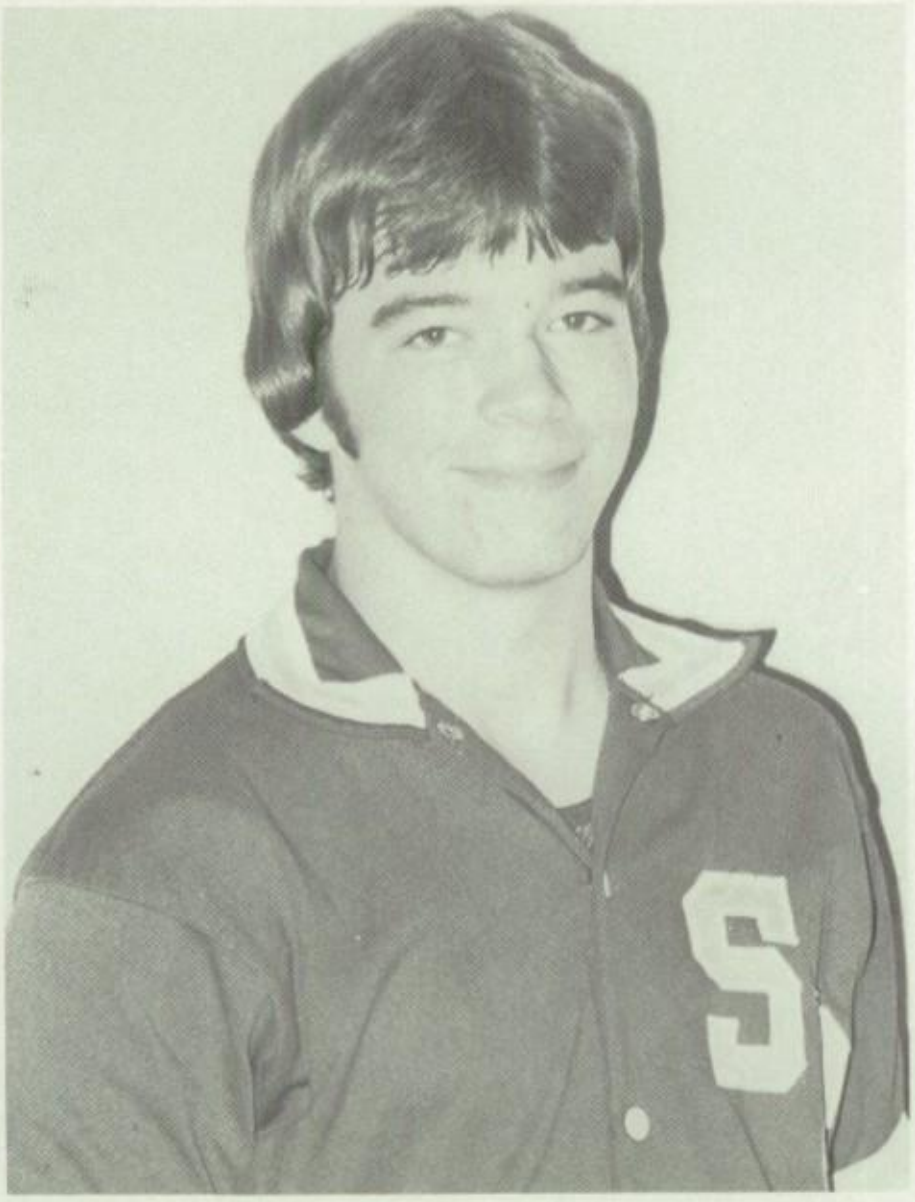
Randy Coerver - Great handler of the ball. Led our fast break effectively.



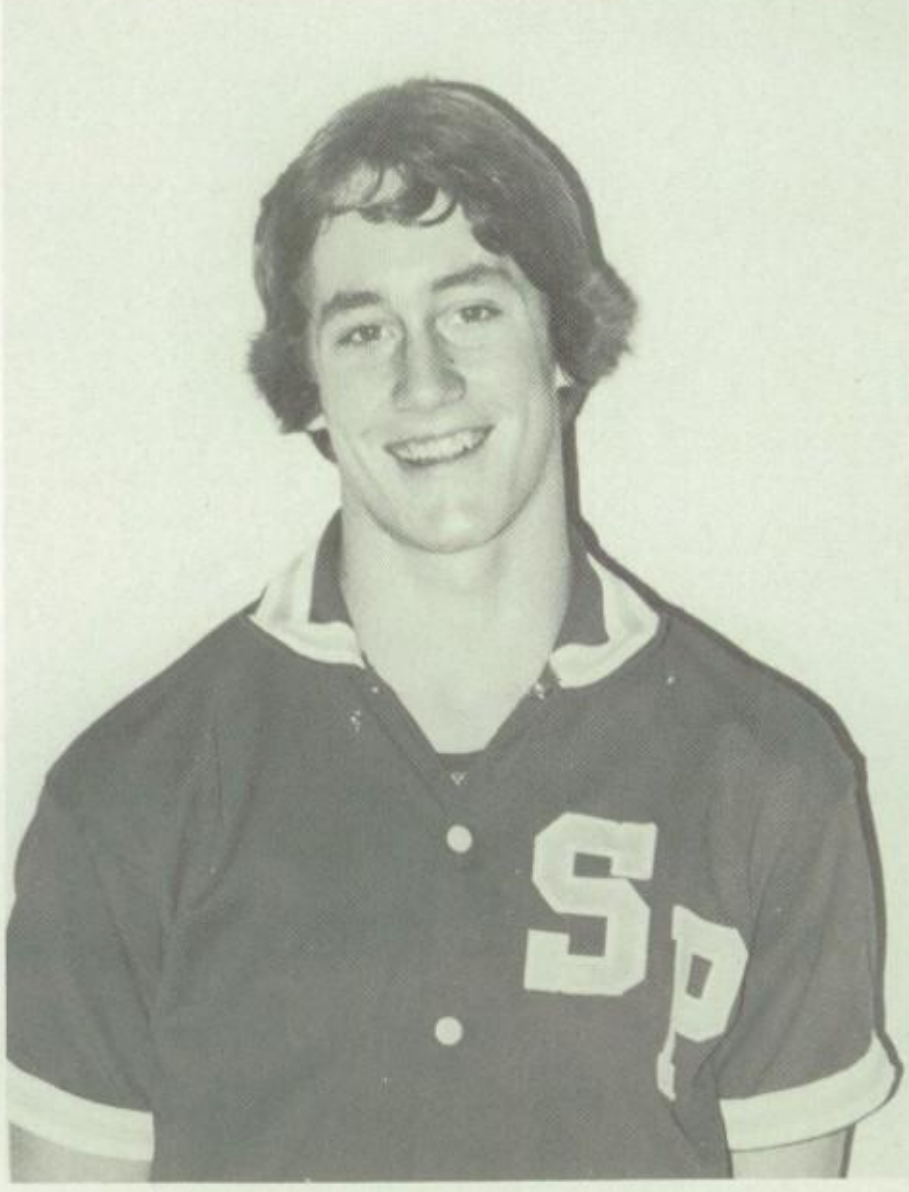
Jim Kasischke - Excellent shooter. Second leading scorer until illness forced him out at mid-season.

Don Pechon - Good jump shot and strong rebounder for his size.

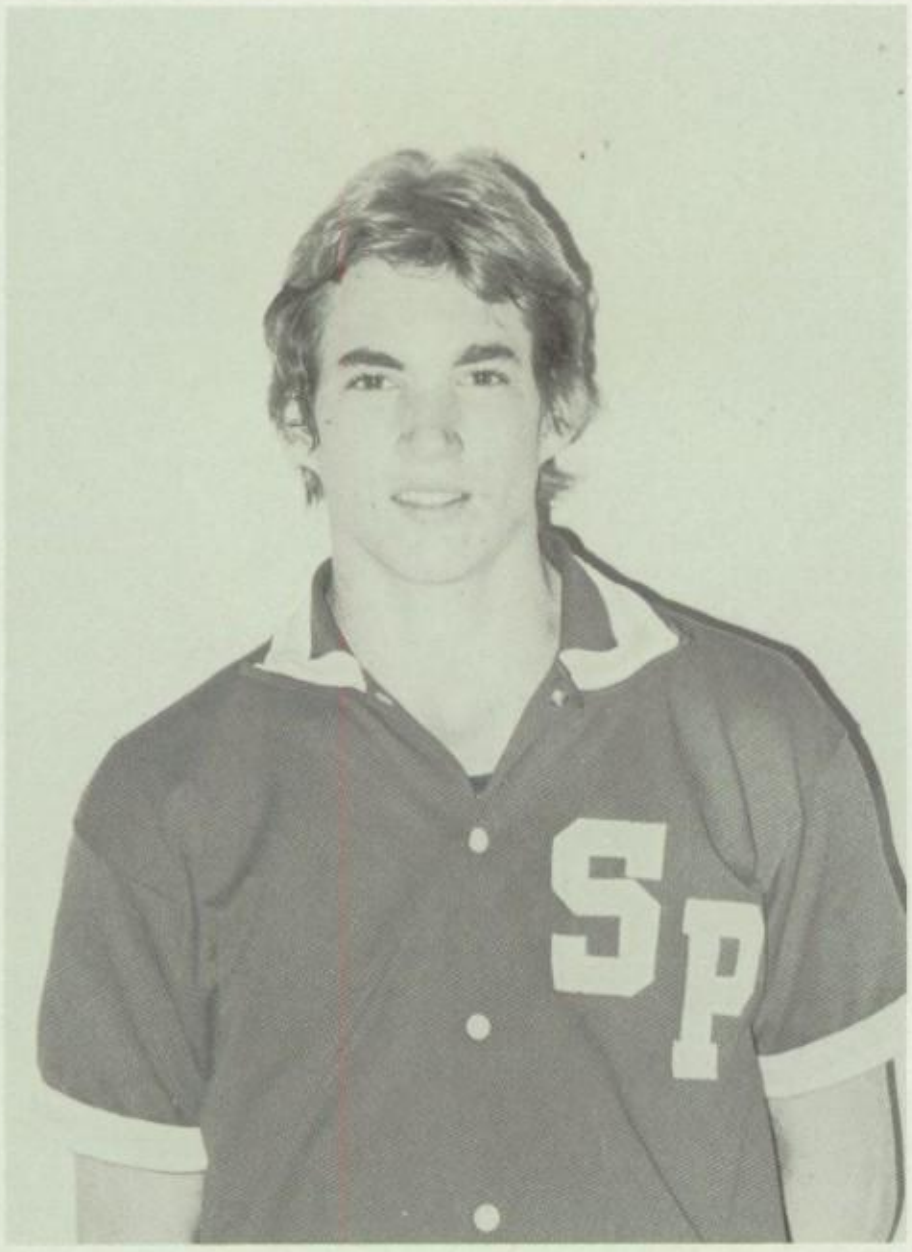
Walter Tanner - Great quickness and jumping ability. Should be outstanding next year.



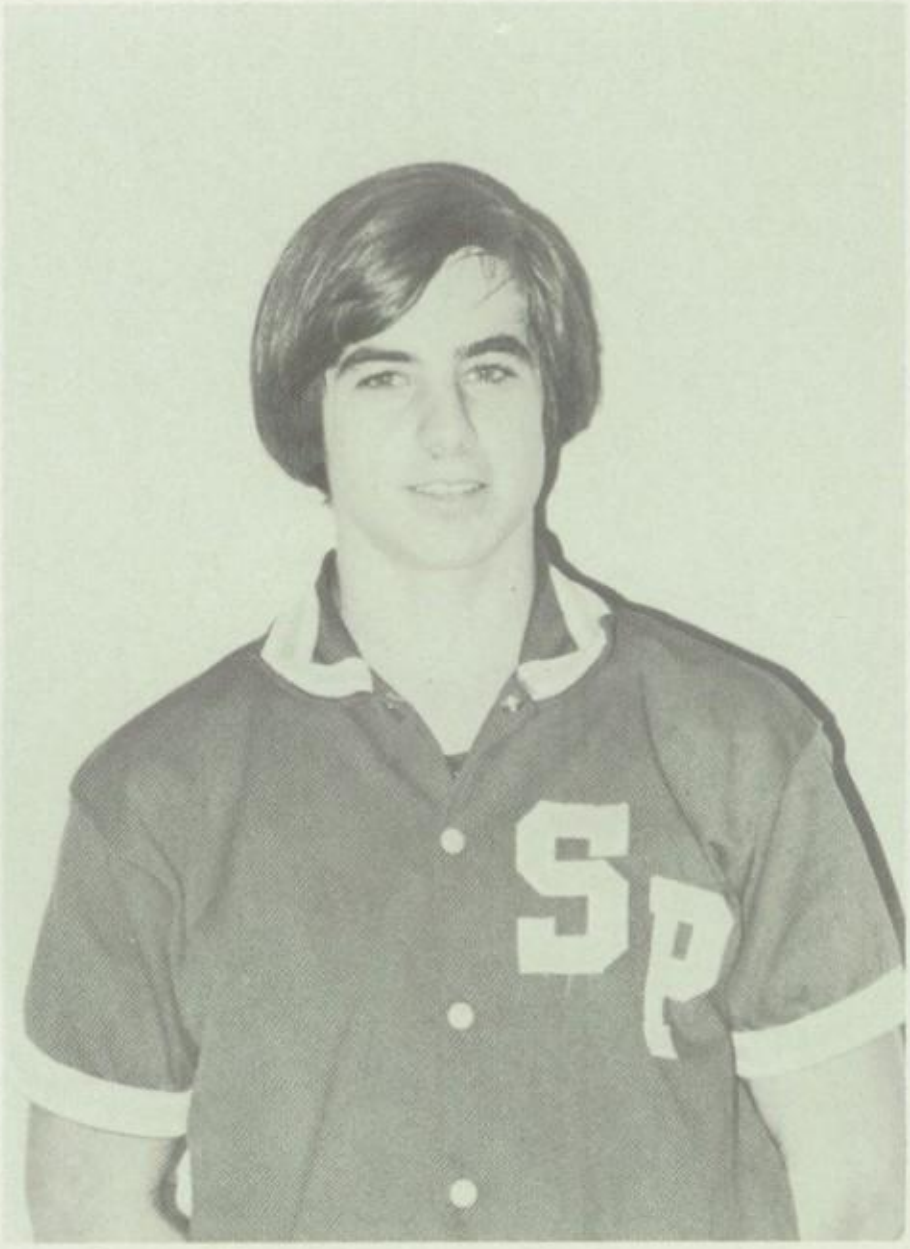
Paul Guichet - Big, strong player. Very good jump shot.



Pat Hunter - Good jumper with great determination. Should be a big asset next season.



Gary Landrieu - Great jumper. Only a lack of experience kept him from being outstanding.



Steve Bernard - Strong defensive player, will be a solid player next year.

David Foret - Came off the bench all year and did a great job.

Taul Myers - Quick hands and feet. One of top defensive players. Should be an outstanding floor leader next season.
